  - Swamiji's Ashram

In April 2009, Dr. Kalam was invited to attend the 102nd birthday celebrations of His Holiness Dr. Sri Sri Shivakumara Mahaswamiji in the Tumkur district of Karnataka. Mahaswamiji is a remarkable person, who has dedicated his life to the service of humanity. His greatest contribution is the establishment of a free residential education system for more than nine thousand children in the ashram. The most astonishing aspect of the entire event of his birthday was that the 102 year old Swamiji stood on his feet without any support! He looked as steady and alert as any other youngster present there. This display of inner strength touched Dr. Kalam deeply.

A couple of days later, we were discussing this unusual birthday party. I said to him, 'Sir, do you know, only four out of 1 lakh people cross the age of 100?' I had googled the subject beforehand. He replied, 'But how many of these four would be able to stand tall for half an hour, give a wise discourse, and then go on to feed thousands of children?' Of course nobody could know the exact answer to his question but the question itself led to many other relevant queries. 'I wonder what powers Mahaswamiji possesses that keep him so strong at such an advanced age? Maybe it's a balanced diet and a healthy lifestyle, or perhaps it's genetics?' I asked.

- A2. Find evidences from the passage that indicates that Swamiji: (2)
- was dedicated
  - had inner strength
  - contributed to the good of the society
  - was younger than the young generation.
- A3. Find out the noun forms of the following from the passage: (2)
- celebrate _____
  - contribute _____
  - educate _____
  - strong _____
- A4. Do as directed: (2)

- A5. Personal Response: (2)
What measures will you take to keep yourself physically and mentally fit?
- B. Read the following passage and do the given activities: [10 marks]
- B1. Choose the correct options from the bracket and fill in the blanks: (2)
(younger, eighty, twenty, interval)
- I went over during the _____ and sat down beside her.
  - None of us are getting any _____.
  - It was _____ years ago.
  - I had _____ francs to last me the rest of the month.

I caught sight of her at the play and in answer to her call. I went over during the interval and sat down beside her. It was long since I had last seen her and, if someone had not mentioned her name, I hardly think I would have recognised her. She addressed me brightly.

“Well, it’s many years since we first met. How time does fly! We’re none of us getting any younger. Do you remember the first time I saw you? You asked me to luncheon.”
Did I remember?

It was twenty years ago and I was living in Paris. I had a tiny apartment and I was earning barely enough money. She had read a book of mine and had written to me about it. I answered, thanking her, and presently, I received from her another letter saying she was passing through Paris and would like to have a chat with me. But her time was limited and the only free moment she had was on the following Thursday and would I give her a little luncheon at Foyot’s afterwards? Foyot’s is a restaurant and it was so far beyond my means that I had never even thought of going there. I had eighty francs (gold francs) to last me the rest of the month and a modest luncheon should not cost more than fifteen. If I cut out coffee for the next two weeks, I could manage well enough.

B2. Where and when did they decide to have luncheon? (2)

B3. Find out the ‘Synonyms’ from the passage for the following words: (2)

- i. A set of rooms
- ii. Acknowledged
- iii. Handle
- iv. Directed.

Section – III (Poetry)

Q.3. A. Read the following extract and do the given activities: [05 marks]

A1. Match the following: (2)

	‘A’		‘B’
i.	Infant	a.	Act like the pard
ii.	School boy	b.	Mewling and puking
iii.	Lover	c.	Whining
iv.	Solider	d.	Sighing like furnace

All the world’s a stage
And all the men and women merely players;
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages. At first, the infant,
Mewling and puking in the nurse’s arms.
Then the whining schoolboy, with his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail
Unwillingly to school. And then the lover,
Sighing like furnace, with a woeful ballad
Made to his mistress’ eyebrow. Then a solider,
Full of strange oaths and bearded like the pard,
Jealous in honour, sudden and quick in quarrel,
Seeking the bubble reputation
Even in the cannon’s mouth

A2. Complete the following table:

Stages of man	Role	Qualities/Action
First Second

A3. All the world's stage:

(1)

- Alliteration

(Choose the correct answer from the given options and explain the chosen figure of speech)

(B) Read the following poem and write an appreciation of it with the help of the given points in paragraph format. [10 marks]

Night of the Scorpion

I remember the night my mother was stung by a scorpion. Ten hours of steady rain had driven him
to crawl beneath a sack of rice.

Parting with his poison – flash of diabolic tail in the dark room –
he risked the rain again.

The peasants came like swarms of flies
and buzzed the name of God a hundred times to paralyse the Evil One.

With candles and with lanterns throwing giant scorpion shadows
on the mud-baked walls
they searched for him: he was not found.
They clicked their tongues.

With every movement that the scorpion made his poison
moved in Mother's blood, they said.

May he sit still, they said
May the sins of your previous birth be burned away tonight, they said.
May your suffering decrease
the misfortunes of your next birth, they said.

May the sum of all evil
balanced in this unreal world against the sum of good become diminished by your pain.

May the poison purify your flesh
of desire, and your spirit of ambition, they said, and they sat around
on the floor with my mother in the centre,
the peace of understanding on each face.

More candles, more lanterns, more neighbours,
more insects, and the endless rain.

My mother twisted through and through,
groaning on a mat.

My father, sceptic, rationalist,
trying every curse and blessing,
powder, mixture, herb and hybrid.

He even poured a little paraffin
upon the bitten toe and put a match to it.

I watched the flame feeding on my mother.
 I watched the holy man perform his rites to tame the poison with an incantation.
 After twenty hours
 it lost its sting.

My mother only said
 Thank God the scorpion picked on me
 And spared my children.

Q.4. A. Read the following passage and do the given activities. [10 marks]

A1. State whether the following statements are true or false: (2)

- i. The narrator writes comics.
- ii. Sudhir qualified as a friend.
- iii. The narrator met Sudhir in Dehra.
- iv. Friendship is all about disintegration.

FRIENDSHIP IS ALL ABOUT DOING THINGS TOGETHER. IT MAY BE Climbing a mountain, fishing in a mountain stream, cycling along a country road, camping in a forest clearing or simply travelling together and sharing the experiences that a new place can bring.

On at least two of these counts, Sudhir qualified as a friend, albeit a troublesome one, given to involving me in his adolescent escapades.

I met him in Dehra soon after my return from England. He turned up at my room, saying he'd heard I was a writer and did I have any comics to lend him?

"I don't write comics", I said; but there were some comics lying around, left over from my own boyhood collection. So I gave these to the lanky youth who stood smiling in the doorway, and he thanked me and said he'd bring them back. From my window, I saw him cycling off in the general direction of Dalanwala.

He turned up again a few days later and dumped a large pile of new-looking comics on my desk. "Here are all the latest", he announced. "You can keep them for me. I'm not allowed to read comics at home".
